

ALLIANCE'70

FIRM PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

Alliance'70 is a new kind of partnership positioning your firm as a leader committed to advancing architecture and fostering a thriving community within the industry.

Set yourself apart by joining together

ALLIANCE'70 is a new Georgia partnership program designed with Georgia architecture firms that offers unparalleled recognition and assistance to Georgia-based architecture firms investing a cumulative $3,000 annually. By contributing directly to AIA Georgia and the Architecture Foundation of Georgia, participating firms not only position themselves as industry leaders but also cultivate stronger connections with peers, and potential exemplary staff. This unique program enhances visibility, opening doors to potential clients and showcasing firms as champions of architectural excellence. Moreover, membership in the alliance signifies a commitment to nurturing the future of architecture by supporting the development of the next generation of architects. Elevate your firm's standing, forge meaningful connections, and champion the future of architecture with Alliance'70.

ELIGIBILITY

Qualifying firms must have its firm leader in Georgia as a member in good standing with AIA Georgia and at least one other employee as a member of AIA Georgia. Additionally, eligible firms must be an Emerging Professional Friendly Firm (determined by survey).
